

A STATELY TWEET

The cardinal was chosen as our state bird because of its bright feathers and cheerful song. The dogwood, which has tiny cluster of flowers surrounded by four white leaves that look like petals, is our state tree and flower. Would you color our feathered friend who is sitting on the dogwood tree branch?

